

Greenpoint Technologies prides itself on being a caring and socially responsible company. Many small and large community service organizations rely on the support that Greenpoint provides. Both the company and its employees regularly donate time and money to make our communities a better, safer place. A few organizations in which Greenpoint regularly supports include: Rebuilding Together Eastside, Special Olympics of Washington, Hopelink, The Boy Scouts of America, and Northwest Harvest.

